STATE OF ARIZONA Office of the Arizona Corporation Commission

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, {SS.

STATE OF ARIZONA

The Arizona Corporation Commission does hereby certify that the annexed is a true and complete transcript of the ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE WEST COAST COMMISSION COMPANY.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That the undersigned, George A. Lonsberry, whose place of residence is Nogales, Santa Cruz County, Arizona, and Joseph C. Camou, whose place of residence is Los Angeles, California, have this day associated themselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation for the purpose hereinafter set forth, under the laws of the State of Arizona, and to that end do declare:

I. The name of said corporation shall be WEST COAST COMMISSION COMPANY.

II

The location of said company's principal office and place of business, in the State of Arizona, shall be at Nogales, Santa Cruz County, State of Arizona, and the corporation may have such other offices, principal and branch, either within or without the State of Arizona, as may be established by the Board of Directors, at which offices meetings of stockholders and directors may be held, and any business of the corporation may be transacted.

The nature of the business and the objects and purposes for which this corporation is formed, are to do any and all things herein set forth, to the same extent and as fully as natural persons might or could do in any part of the world, as principal, agent, broker, contractor, trustee, or otherwise, and either alone or in company with others, namely:

To acquire by purchase or otherwise, own, hold, develop, buy, sell, convey, lease, mortgage, encumber, or deal in lands, real estate, water rights, and any and all their interest in lands and real estate of whatever kind or nature, to survey, subdivide, pat, improve and develop land for purposes of sale, lease, and to do and perform all things lawful and proper for the development and improvement of the same for stock raising, agricultural, residential, trade and business.

To construct, purchase, develop or otherwise acquire, maintain, repair and operate water and water works and drainage and canal systems, and to sell, lease, rent or deal in water and water rights and privileges.

To buy, sell, and generally trade and deal in, store, carry, and transport all kind of goods, wares, merchandise, provisions and their products, to breed, raise, buy, sell and deal in cattle, and live stock of all kinds and their products of all kinds and to carry on and conduct a general live stock and agricultural business.

To build, erect, construct, manage, rent, lease or occupy, stock, water, water, yards, pens, dipping vats, slaughter-houses, cold storage houses, ice plants, packing houses, rendering plants, butchering shops, dairies, markets, and such buildings, yards or structures, useful or convenient for the proper handling of live stock and their products, to buy, own, operate, lease, or occupy lands, buildings and structures for stock yards, sales yards, corrals, pens, dipping vats, slaughter houses, cold storage houses, packing houses, rendering plants, butchering shops, dairies, markets, and for such buildings, yards and structures as may be useful or convenient for the proper handling of live stock and all their products.

To build, erect, construct, manage and occupy commission houses, sales yards and markets for the transaction of a general commission business in cattle and live stock of every kind; to own, lease or otherwise hold and occupy, maintain and conduct markets for the purchase and sale of cattle and live stock of every kind, and to make, maintain and enforce rules, regulations and charges for the proper and profitable conduct of a general live stock commission business and of a general stock yards and sales business.

In furtherance and not in limitation of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of Arizona, and of the objects and purposes herein set forth, it is hereby expressly provided that this corporation shall also have the following powers, that is to say:

1-To acquire the good will, rights, property and franchises, and undertake the business of any part of the assets and liabilities of any persons, firm, association, corporation, or otherwise, in any manner and by any means, and to hold, own, use and operate, or sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the property so purchased; to conduct in any lawful manner, and for such purposes, all business so acquired, and to exercise all the powers necessary or convenient in and about the conduct and management of such business.

2-To hold, purchase, or otherwise acquire, sell, guarantee, underwrite, assign, transfer, pledge, hypothecate, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the capital stock or other evidences of indebtedness created by any other corporation or other person, firm, association, or other State or Territory, country, dominion or government, and while the holder of such stock, to exercise all the rights and powers of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, to the same extent as natural persons might or could do.

3-To make and enter into and perform contracts of every sort and kind for any lawful purpose with any person, firm, association, corporation, private, public or municipal body, political, and with the government of the United States, or any State, Territory, country, dominion or government, and to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, so far as may be permitted by the laws of the State of Arizona.

4-To apply for, or in any manner acquire, and to hold, own, use and operate, or sell or otherwise dispose of, and to grant license or other rights, inventions, improvements and processes, used in connection with or secured under Letters Patent or Copyrights of the United States or other countries, and to make, operate and develop or use the same, and to carry on any business, manufacturing or otherwise, which may directly or indirectly effectuate these objects or any of them.

5-To purchase, hold, cancel, and re-issue the shares of its Capital Stock.

6-To conduct its business or any part thereof in any and all parts of the world, and to have one or more offices out of the State of Arizona, and to purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, mortgage or otherwise lien or encumber any real and personal property, and to convey and transfer real and personal property of every kind and nature both within and without the State of Arizona, and to issue its bonds in pursuance hereof.

7-In general, to carry on any other business within or without the State of Arizona in connection with the objects herein set forth, and to do all things which may be necessary or convenient for the carrying out of the objects and purposes herein set forth, and to do all things which may be necessary or convenient for the carrying out of the objects and purposes herein set forth, and to do all things which may be necessary or convenient for the carrying out of the objects and purposes herein set forth.

8-To become and be the trustee of any person, firm, association or corporation, and to exercise all the powers and privileges of a trustee in accordance with the terms and conditions of the trust under and by which the same is committed to it.

IV
The amount of the total capital stock of this corporation shall be Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) divided into five thousand (5,000) shares of the par value of Ten ($10.00) Dollars each.

The capital stock shall be common stock and the terms upon which such stock is created is that it shall be issued to the full par value thereof, and such stock shall be issued as fully paid up, the capital stock of this corporation, after its full par value has been fully paid up, or which has been issued as fully paid up, shall not be subject to assessment to pay the debts of the corporation.

V
The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the date of the filing of these articles of incorporation in the office of the Arizona Corporation Commission at Phoenix, Arizona, and the said corporation shall endure for twenty-five years thereafter, unless sooner terminated.

VI
The affairs of this corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors, consisting of not less than three nor more than five persons who shall be stockholders of this corporation, and who shall be elected annually at the regular annual meetings of the stockholders of this corporation, in accordance with the provisions of by-laws to be adopted by this corporation. Until provision is made by the by-laws to be adopted by this corporation, the election of a Board of Directors of this corporation, the incorporators above named, George A. Lonsberry and Joseph C. Camou, shall be and constitute the Board of Directors of this corporation and shall hold office as such until their successors are duly elected and qualified. The powers of the Board of Directors and of all officers of this corporation shall be defined by by-laws to be adopted by this corporation.

VII
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation is at any time to be subjected shall not exceed two-thirds of its capital stock.

VIII
The private property of the stockholders of this corporation shall be exempt from this corporation's corporate debts of all kinds whatsoever.

IX

AGRICULTURAL LANDS

On the Magdalena and Altar Rivers, Sonora

Stock and Cattle Ranches in the Districts of Magdalena and Altar

The district watered by the Magdalena River is the best in Sonora; the greatest water shed, the greatest rainfall, and unquestionably the best climate, with an average elevation of 3000 feet. Corn is summer and grain in winter, and the best alfalfa district in Sonora.

200,000 ACRES of bottom land on the Magdalena River with ample flood waters, and pumping water at very shallow depth, with abundant mesquite fuel.

Less than 20% of the valley in cultivation today. Main trunk line railway traverses the valley. The mesa lands constitute the best grazing lands in Sonora. No tick.

Agricultural bottom lands from $5.00 to $25.00. Grazing land with ample water for stock, $1.00 to $1.50
